SECRETFOREIGN BROADCAST INFORMATION SERVICELibyan Air Incident

FBIS reporting from the Libyan radios concerning the air incident involving U.S. F-14's and Libyan aircraft was handled by its London and Nicosia operations. Material giving the Libyan versions of the incident went to U.S. military commands in the area as well as normal FBIS consumers. Even before the incident, FBIS had carried on its wire service a broadcast from Tripoli calling the U.S. maneuvers "a violation of national sovereignty" and warning that Libya "reserves the right to take all measures" to defend its "legitimate rights in its airspace and territorial waters." ☐

Documents on Terrorism

Responding to a recent HUMINT tasking plan on terrorism, State has advised FBIS that it has a large collection of foreign-language documents on terrorism, dating back to 1976, and for the most part apparently untranslated. FBIS is consulting with State; FBIS officers will evaluate the material, in such languages as Portuguese, Spanish, Italian, German, Armenian, Swedish, and Arabic, with an eye toward translation of those materials of intelligence value. ☐
